featuring

Dr. Nancy Boyles

Reading, Writing, and Rigor: Helping Students Achieve Greater Depth of Knowledge in Literacy

The rigor is in the answer, not in the question! This workshop develops a deeper understanding of rigor in literacy—what it is, and what it looks like in today's standards-based instruction and assessment. Explore the connection between rigor and depth of knowledge and identify questions and tasks that require rigor at all levels of complexity. Learn about practices that promote rigor and strategies that support both teachers and students. Take home a handout with classroom-ready resources that will inspire deeper thinking in your students.

ALRAN Books will be at the event with books for sale, including Nancy's professional books. They will also have many of the children's books she references.
